JEWISH FAMILY SERVICES WELCOMES BACK MICHELE COHEN AS VICE-PRESIDENT OF COMMUNITY BASED SERVICES

Milwaukee, WI - Jewish Family Services, Inc. (JFS) has hired Michele Cohen as Vice-President of Community Based Services. Cohen was previously employed by JFS as Vice-President of Exceptional Needs from 2006 to 2009.

In this new role, Cohen will assume the duties that were previously assigned to the Vice President of Older Adult Services. In addition, she will work with the staff of JFS Housing, Inc. (JFSHI) to improve coordination of services to residents, develop community services and partnerships with other service providers on behalf of JFSHI, and explore public and private partnerships to benefit the aging, disability and underserved populations.

Before returning to JFS, Cohen was the Director of Clinical Services at Willowglen Academy, which provides residential, school-based, wraparound and clinical treatment for children, adults and families living with behavioral, developmental and social challenges. She continues to serve as Adjunct Instructor in the Counseling and Psychology department at Mount Mary University.

Cohen has a bachelor of arts degree in Psychology from Southern Illinois University, a master of arts degree in Psychology from John F. Kennedy University, and a PhD in Psychology from Capella University.

Since 1867, Jewish Family Services has provided comprehensive social services to the Milwaukee area Jewish and general community. Its mission is to provide supportive services that strengthen families, children and individuals throughout the life cycle within the context of their unique needs and traditions.
