NATASA TORBICA SELECTED AS DELEGATE FOR UNHCR REFUGEE CONGRESS

Milwaukee, WI - Natasa Torbica, Milwaukee Area Refugee Consortium Coordinator (MARC) at Jewish Family Services, has been chosen to represent resettled refugees in the state of Wisconsin for the United Nations High Commissioner for Refugees Congress (UNHCR). As a delegate, Torbica will attend the convening of the Refugee Congress in Washington, D.C. in November.

The Refugee Congress brings together individuals who have resettled in the United States, and who represent the diversity of resettled refugee populations in all 50 states. The findings and recommendations of the Refugee Congress will be shared with U.S. Congressional representatives and the stakeholders in the U.S.

Torbica, a refugee from the former Yugoslavia, received an invitation to submit an application to be part of the Refugee Congress in June and was selected in September. An employee of JFS for over three years, Torbica also served as event coordinator for the MARC World Refugee Day celebration in Milwaukee in June 2013.
